

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) Release Authorization Form

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

The Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) (20 U.S.C 1232g;34 CFR Part 99) is a Federal law that protects the privacy of student’s education records. The law applies to all schools that receive funds under an applicable program of the U.S. Department of Education. FERPA gives parents certain rights with respect to their children’s education records. These rights transfer to the student when he or she reaches the age of 18, or attends a school beyond the high school level.

I, _____ do hereby give my consent for West Texas A&M University and the Office of Community Standards to release information from my education records including but not limited to information regarding my Disciplinary Records to:

_____

I acknowledge by my signature that I understand although I am not required to release my records, I am giving my consent to release the information. I understand that this release remains in effect unless I revoke such consent in writing and the revocation is delivered to the institution.
